Entry information

All Ridden instruction for this event will take place, subject to weather, on Oxford Polo's grass pitch, if the pitch I deemed as too wet it will take place in Oxford Polo's purpose built enclosed polo arena on a surface.

The day will be broken down into two halves. The morning session will be for Jorrocks, JOPPS and Handley Cross which is suitable all children as well as those new to polo.

Everyone will be grouped according to age / section entered.

Training will consist of a combination of fun and educational sessions covering polo rules & tactics/polo specific stable management/wooden horses/hand sticks/ polo riding/stick & ball.

Bring your own "fluffy" (14.2h or under) or school master polo ponies are available to hire – please contact Hector Worsley 07494 572877 or hector@oxfordpolo.co.uk

Half sticks, small full size sticks can be provided.

Numbers will need to be limited and entries taken on a 'first come' basis.

Cost £50 per person on your own pony and £75 per person on a hire pony.

There is a Pony Club polo training grant of £25.00 per person available for players new to polo and a separate grant for those under 14 years old on their own 'fluffy'. Please contact Charlotte for more details charlotte@oxfordpolo.co.uk.

Timings on the day:
