Additional Details

This is a particularly good series of rallies for those who wish to improve on their accuracy and riding skills for dressage as well as show jumping and cross country. Round circles, straight lines, accurately ridden corners and sharp transitions are all part and parcel of many riding disciplines and this course of rallies will help you learn skills to improve your riding for all disciplines; not just the dressage. The rallies are particularly useful if you are interested in competing in the Regional dressage this year as they are with Carol Starkey who is the Regional Dressage coach. Attending these rallies will give her a good opportunity to get to know you and your pony should you wish to enter the competition in July.
