Rules

Belvoir Hunter Trial Rules — read carefully

All competitors must wear crash helmets to current recognised British Safety Standards. All competitors must also wear a body protector to current approved British Safety Standards.

If an Air Jacket is worn it must be worn over a body protector, not on its own.

All those mounted at an event (including grooms and helpers) must wear a hard hat to current recognised British Safety Standard when mounted.

No horse or pony may compete more than once in any class or twice during the day.

It is permissible for a horse or pony to complete in a Hunter Trial class and also a Team Chase class, or in the Hunter Trial Pairs class and the Solo Hunter Trial class.

PENALTIES Refusals — There is no penalty for a refusal other than it will increase the time taken to complete the course, however, the number of refusals shall not exceed three at any one fence, or a total of five on the course (per horse), when upon the competitor/s shall be eliminated and must leave the course at once at a walk .

There will be a Bogey time in all classes, the rider nearest to the Bogey time will win. This is not a speed class!

In the event of a tie, the number of refusals shall be taken into consideration, the least number of refusals will win.

Fall of horse or pony = Elimination. Error of course not rectified = Elimination.

The error must be corrected before the next fence is jumped, otherwise = Elimination

Trapped horse - Elimination

What is a horse fall? A horse fall is when:

At the same time its shoulder and hind quarters have touched either the ground or the obstacle and the ground, or when it is trapped in a fence in such a way that it is unable to proceed without assistance or is liable to injure itself.

Competitors unseated by a stumble or refusal may remount and continue, if fit to do so.

A rider having 2 falls is eliminated. All riders having fallen should be checked by the doctor before riding again.
